

Book Discussion of

The Making of Our Bodies Ourselves: How Feminism Travels Across Borders by Kathy Davis

Tuesday,
March 30,
7:00-8:30 PM at
Prairie Lights Books

Join us in the relaxing environment of the Prairie Lights Times Club, enjoy a beverage, and participate in an engaging discussion of the origins and circulation of a quintessential feminist text.

DISCUSSION LED BY:

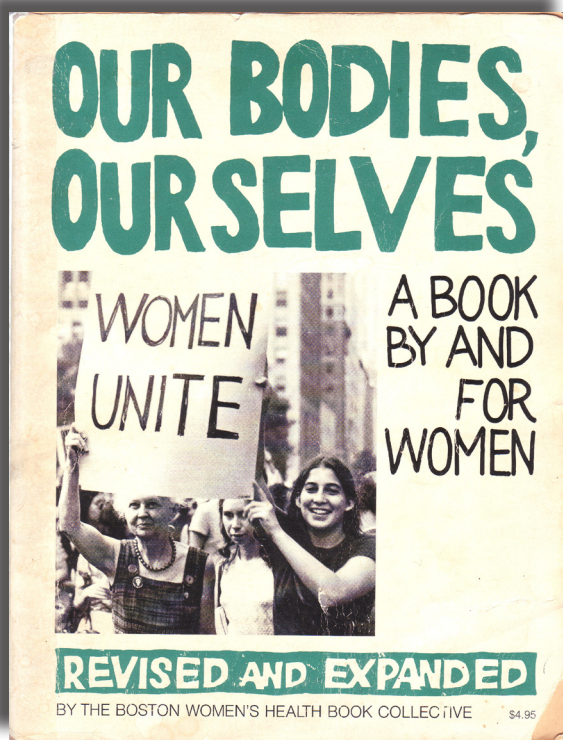

Monica Brasile, PhD candidate in Women's Studies, Certified Childbirth Educator, and Doula

Meena Khandelwal, Associate Professor of Anthropology and Women's Studies specializing in transnational feminism.

TO PREPARE:

Please read Chapters 1, 2, and 6 of the Davis book. Discussion questions are posted on line at: <http://www.uiowa.edu/csw/committees/herstory>

Copies of the Davis book are available for purchase at Prairie Lights bookstore, or for loan at WRAC and the UI Main Library reserve.

SPONSORED BY:

University of Iowa Council on the Status of Women as part of Women's History Month